ARGENTINE GUEST OF HONOUR!

The Alliance of Argentine Independent Publishers for Bibliodiversity (EDINAR), a not-profit working group created in 2005 gathering 30 publishing houses, are here in Frankfurt.

A conversation with the Association of German independent publishers will take place on Thursday 7th October from 3:00 pm to 4:00 pm, in 5.1. D 975, in English and in Spanish. Both associations will present their respective Hotlists, including young publishers from Argentina and Germany.

THE INTERNATIONAL ALLIANCE OF INDEPENDENT PUBLISHERS

Founded in 2002, the International Alliance of Independent Publishers is a non-profit association which coordinates an international network comprised of 85 publishing houses and groups of publishers from 47 countries – the Alliance represents directly or indirectly some 360 publishing houses. The Alliance organizes international meeting and carries out advocacy work to foster independence. It also backs international publishing projects – in the form of assistance with translation or co-publishing. Finally, the Alliance contributes to the promotion and diffusion of productions from the South to the North and modestly tries to invert one-way trade flows. The Alliance thus contributes to enhancing the accessibility of works and ideas, to defending and promoting bibliodiversity.
