“Independent feminist publishing across borders” (round table)

Thursday, 15 October 2015 / 1.00–2.00 pm

Hall 3.1 (Weltempfang - Centre for Politics, Literature and Translation)

Independent feminist publishing across borders – dialogue between 4 feminist publishers from 3 continents

Feminist publishing in the 21st century: in what ways does it transform patriarchy and heterosexism? Do feminist publishers face any particular challenges that differ from other independent publishers? This panel brings together feminist publishers with decades of experience and knowledge of publishing in the global space, to discuss the strengths, problems and future of feminist publishing.

With Renate Klein (Spinifex Press, Australia), Susan Hawthorne (Spinifex Press, Australia), Colleen Higgs (Modjaji Books, South Africa) and Müge Gürsoy Sökmen (Metis Publishers, Turkey).
Chaired by Juan Carlos Sáez (JC Sáez Editor, Chile).

Network of 400 publishing houses from 45 countries around the world in support of bibliodiversity
